MDA's teams and First Responders

A Work Day that Did Not Go As Planned

Pibishenko had an emotional meeting with the EMTs and Paramedics who saved his life. He collapsed while at work and was saved when Lipa Hirsch arrived to his aid within one minute of receiving the call.

Pibishenko's work day started as it usually does. However, it did not end that way. A call was received at the MDA 101 Emergency Dispatch Center for a 40 year old man who had seemingly collapsed at work. Advanced EMT Lipa Hirsch arrived within minutes thanks to the new MERV he was driving. Lipa began CPR until other teams arrived and joined him. In an emotional meeting, Lipa and Pibishenko met and discussed the event. Lipa stressed that without the appropriate equipment the outcome could have been fatal.

Sponsor training, lifesaving equipment, medical supplies and communications equipment for an MDA First Responder for $4800, and be part of the next miracle.
